

Conner Scholarships
in French and Francophone Studies for Study Abroad (semester long program)

If you are pursuing a Major in French and Francophone Studies Major and are studying abroad for a semester long program in Spring 2015 please consider applying for the Conner scholarships program.

These scholarships are given to undergraduate students majoring in French and Francophone Studies (double major and dual degree students are eligible) and attending a study abroad program focusing of French language and culture. A faculty review committee will selects the awardee based on their academic performance and involvement in the French and Francophone Studies Program. The value of the scholarship is $1000. The awardee will be recognized at the LLC annual award ceremony.

Application deadline: November 24th, 2014

Student Name & UFID

Email address

Major(s) & Minor(s)

Overall GPA

Name of the study abroad program and list of the courses

An accompanying letter in which the candidate explains the reasons why the candidate is applying but also why the particular program

Name and contact information of two French professor at UF (name and email).

Please send the supporting documents for your application by email before Friday November 24th by 4pm to: blondeau@ufl.edu

Dr. Helene Blondeau

Undergraduate Advisor for French and Francophone Studies Notification of selection will be by e-mail. For further information, please contact Dr. Helene Blondeau.