ON-CAMPUS JOB SEARCH

Searching for a job can sometimes be a long and tedious task. The International Center has put together some links to make your search a little easier. If you have any questions regarding if a job qualifies as an on-campus job, do not hesitate to email your International Student Advisor.*

- Gator Dining Services (https://gatordining.com/employment)
  Whether you are looking for a part-time position that is challenging and rewarding, a student needing flexible hours or someone looking for a career with a world leader in managed services, Gator Dining is the place for you!

- GatorWell: (https://gatorwell.ufsa.ufl.edu/contact/student-employment)
  GatorWell is dedicated to ensuring that our students' work experiences contribute to success in the classroom by linking work at GatorWell to academic, professional, social and personal development.

- Student Engagement Division of Student Affairs (https://studentengagement.ufl.edu/jobs)
  Comprised of six areas on a quest for innovation, collaboration, and the fully engaged student. We inspire exploration in every Gator through opportunities for learning, leadership, engagement and the spaces that enrich the campus community.

- OPS Jobs (https://jobs.ufl.edu)
  OPS (Other Personnel Services) is state-funded and is not based on need. To be eligible, students employed by UF must have at least a 2.0 GPA and be enrolled for at least six credit hours per semester. International students must be enrolled full time, unless approved for a RCL.

- O'Connell Center (https://www.oconnellcenter.ufl.edu/part-time-employment)
  As one of the largest part- time employers for students on campus, the O'Connell Center provides the opportunity to work in an exciting and dynamic environment that allows you to create a schedule around your classes. Part-time employment takes place in three departments: Event Staff, Changeover, and Technical.

- Performing Arts Center (https://performingarts.ufl.edu/students)
  UFPA's goal is not only to entertain, but also to enrich the lives of students during their time here in Gainesville. In an effort to reach out to students and provide them with exceptional opportunities to experience the arts, we offer specially priced student tickets, internship opportunities, student memberships, and more.

- UAA (tutoring jobs only) (https://floridagators.com/sports/2015/12/10/_employment_.aspx)
  The primary goal of the tutorial program is to provide student-athletes with quality academic assistance, beyond what they receive in the classroom.

- Teaching Center (https://teachingcenter.ufl.edu/about-us/employment-opportunities)
  UF undergraduates with high GPA's are employed as peer tutors, study group leaders, and office assistants.

- Libraries (http://www.uflib.ufl.edu/pers/OpenPositions.html)
  The library branches and departments provide a variety of convenient, student-oriented jobs with flexible work schedules during the day or evening. To be eligible, students employed by UF must have at least a 2.0 GPA and be enrolled for at least six credit hours per semester. International students must be enrolled full time, unless approved for a RCL.

- Departments: Check any openings in your department as well as other departments across campus.

Tip: Sometimes it is necessary while searching for a job to be proactive. This means taking action to make something happen. You can do this by stopping by the potential place of employment and introducing yourself, dropping off a resume and explaining your interest in the position. First impressions are very important, therefore, do not be afraid to take initiative while on your job search, but try your best to not be too intrusive or pushy.

* You may not work off-campus without the appropriate work authorization from the UFIC. You may work on-campus up to 20 hours per week (spring/fall) and more than 20 hours during the summer, winter, and spring breaks.
Federal Work Study Positions are only available to U.S. citizens and permanent residents.   Revised: 09/01/2020
