

International Scholars Program

Course Designation

Application Form

a) COURSE ELIGIBILITY

The course must:

- Be a 3 credit-course
- Have content or projects that are internationally and thematically-focused, while being interdisciplinary and broadly appealing to students from across disciplines, minors, majors, or colleges
- Address the following student learning outcomes (SLOs):
 - o SLO1 (Content): Students identify and examine the historical and contemporary roles, interconnection, and differential effects of human organizations and actions on global systems within the human and natural worlds.
 - o SLO2 (Critical Thinking): Students identify and explain multiple perspectives (such as cultural, disciplinary, and ethical) when exploring subjects with natural and human systems.
 - o SLO3 (Communication): Students recognize and participate in cultural differences in verbal and nonverbal communication to negotiate a shared understanding based on those differences.

Please note - if your course has multiple sections, ALL sections must be internationalized to receive the International Scholars Program Course Designation.

b) REQUIREMENTS

Courses must support the mission of the International Scholars Program to enrolled students by:

- including the following blurb in the course syllabus: International Scholars Program: This course fulfills one of the curriculum requirements of the International Scholars Program. Learn more about how you can obtain a graduation medallion and digital badge with this distinction by visiting the program's website.
- Scheduling a 10 minute class talk with an ISP representative OR providing a link to the ISP informational video on the course's Canvas page.
